Appno Ki KAHANI [CLIENTS' STORY]

Following are few of the interesting client stories.

MS. ANISHA JOHRI

Happy and proud to share that Forbes India, June 2021 issue covered the endeavour of Ms. Anisha Johri, Chairperson – Artisan Soul. In fact from time to time, we have been highlighting their work as well in our newsletter. Our client Bargach Finance is providing massive community support to and through Artisan Soul.

You can read the full article here: <https://bit.ly/2UYEgLh>

Visa was first to tie up with Artisan Soul for discounts on buying any of their products through Visa Card. Now Ujjivan has also tied up with them. Needless to say WealthApp Distributors has also been supporting their noble cause to showcase rural artisan works.

Artisan Soul Uplifts the Artisan Community across the Country

“There is a dedicated team that continuously interacts with Artisan for any product improvement. The team also takes continuous feedback from customers on their buying experiences. This has helped improve our product suite and also meet the demand of customers on an ongoing basis.”

MS. VANITA TONDON

If you are looking at touching hearts, and don't feel like conducting a cooking marathon in your kitchen, look no further than Brown's, run by Vanita Tondon and her team.

An artisan catering service, they ensure that whether you are hosting a fancy dinner for family and friends, you have a bulk gift distribution to fulfill complete with pretty packaging for an upcoming wedding, birth announcement or festival, or have a business event to cater a high tea for, all your culinary needs are taken care of under one roof !

The head chef and owner of this organization, Vanita Tondon, started Brown's in 2017 from her home kitchen. She is a trained pâtissier from Le Notre Paris, and has taken several courses to update herself along the way. Brown's has now grown to have a commercial kitchen space and a larger team, all of whom are women, and Vanita is passionate about keeping it this way.

One might think that making fresh investments into a business during a pandemic is a risky proposition. However, counter intuitively, people ordering in at home and having parties at home has increased significantly and resulted in a massive rise in demand for Brown's products and services. Moreover, customers from overseas, with relatives and friends in Kolkata, wanting to send across a meal or dessert as a gift, have also been on the rise. Usually, they contact the team via Facebook or Insta Messenger in order to finalise their requirements.

To order with them, call or whatsapp on 9830021264 / 9903661704. They are active on Instagram as @browns_foodwithlove, and go by the same identity on Facebook.
