[CLIENTS' STORY]

We are glad to share some of the client stories with you.

MR. RAHUL JOHRI

Artisan Soul is an initiative supported by Mr. Rahul Johri, Chairman at Bargach Finance. They help artisan communities retail their products and promote them on a global scale and now partners with over 1000 artisans across 4 states.

Following is an article from Artisan Soul.

Artisan Soul: PARTNERING WITH Artisan Communities.

Over the last six months of operation, Artisan Soul has successfully partnered with over 1000 artisans across 15 artisan communities from the interiors. We have been instrumental in providing them with an open platform for them to showcase their art to individuals worldwide. Artisan Soul commenced operations when the world was still under quarantine. Even the most talented of artisans were facing the harsh consequences brought about by the spread of coronavirus. Artisan Soul was born at this time wherein we stood with several such artisan communities and helped them showcase the beautiful art forms of Dokra, Kantha, Pattachitra etc. Artisan Soul continues to serve a dual objective – Recognition and business for the artisans which has ensured they tide over the present phase. Through Artisan Soul, many artisans have built a strong connect with customers across the globe – Customers from USA, Singapore and UAE have bought items on the platform.

Artisan Soul works with artisans residing in the interiors in Eastern India, in districts such as Burdwan, Birbhum, Sambalpur, Dakshin Dinajpur, etc. It is regularly reaching out to new artisan communities for their craft to be showcased on the platform. Artisan Soul has a social objective to give back to the artisan communities – It works closely with the artisan communities in the fields of sanitation betterment, drinking water and education for children in the artisan villages. In alignment with the company tagline "Local to Global", it is our constant endeavour to present authentic Indian art to a global audience. Stay tuned with Artisan Soul to know about quality handcrafted creations. Totally authentic. Each online purchase will make a difference in the life of an artisan. Thanking you for your support to Artisan Soul!
