Dear Mr. Sengupta,

It was a pleasure meeting you yesterday. We were truly delighted to be introduced to such a wonderful person with vast experience in management. Your 28 years with Nestlé and your exceptional experience in people management gave us valuable insights and motivation.

We deeply appreciate the time you spent with us and the practical suggestions you shared during your visit to Manipal EM Bypass (Erstwhile Medica) and Manipal Mukundapur (Erstwhile AMRI) as well as your observations drawn from your experiences at Manipal Bangalore Hospital and other healthcare facilities. Your recommendations were not only insightful but also highly implementable. We will make every effort to incorporate several of them at the earliest.

We would love to hear more from you in the future and may request you to conduct a session for our staff to share your rich experience and learnings.

Warm regards,
